

HARRISON ALLEN MARKING POLICY

Person responsible for policy and reviews: Nicola Smith

Latest review date: June 2017

Preface

One of the most valuable aspects of one-to-one tuition is its capacity for the development of really good student/teacher relationships. It should be acknowledged that some students may be unwilling/unable to produce written work in a lesson or undertake independent written work outside a lesson. Thus, in order to preserve the relationship, written work should be encouraged but not enforced.

Aim

This policy aims to help students to reach or exceed their full academic potential.

Objectives

To achieve this aim, students should be aware of:

- Their level for the section of work;
- Their successes with the section of work;
- How to improve the section of work.

How students are levelled or graded:-

Recent changes to grading are reflected in the guidelines below.

Primary - Key Stage 1 and 2 – Schools are now expected to establish their own grading systems however many have retained the pre-existing KS1 and 2 descriptors with which teachers and parents were familiar. These are described below

- KS1 (Years 1,2,3) Levels 1-2 – expected attainment level end Yr2 L2
- KS2 (Years 4,5,6) Levels 3-5 – expected attainment level end Yr6 L4

In addition to each level, progress within that level must be shown as a, b or c:

- c = beginning to work at this level
- b = working competently at this level
- a = showing signs of attaining the top of the level and being near to the next highest level.

Secondary – KS3 and 4 – GCSE Grades have changed as follows:

Previously	New
A*/A	9/8/7
B	6
C	5/4
D	3
E	2
F/G/U	1/0

THE MARKING PROCESS

TARGET LEVEL

All exercise books should have the target level clearly written on the front inside cover.

HOW THE BOOKS SHOULD BE MARKED –

At the end of each section of work that is marked, teachers need to give:

1. A level or grade. At Key Stages 2 and 3, wherever possible, this should be in the form of a sub-level.
2. Strengths of the piece of work.
3. Next steps – strategies for progress
4. References to targets

SPG

Throughout the section of work that is marked, use the following notation in the margin to highlight Spelling, Punctuation and Grammar.

The marking may require additional explanation as well as:

Sp = spelling error (highlight subject-specific key words. Students should be encouraged to correct their spellings using a dictionary).

Gr = grammar error.

P = punctuation needed.

NP = new paragraph.

// where the new paragraph should be.
